Amelia Earhart Here In Seminary Course Of Northfield Seminary

Amelia Earhart, first woman to make a solo flight across the Atlantic, will inaugurate the Northfield Seminary Entertainment Course, Saturday night-September 30th. She will speak on her work in aviation, and owing to the demand for seats the affair will be held in the Auditorium instead of in Silverthorne Hall as originally planned. Under this new arrangement seats will probably be available for all who wish to attend. The time will be 7.45 and 35 cents admission will be charged.

Because of the large enrollment in the Seminary there will be only a limited number of seats available to the public for the subsequent features on this entertainment course, which will be held in Silverthorne Hall.

The tentative program announced by Miss Harriet Howard, Chairman of the Entertainment Committee is as follows:

December, Branson de Cou who will show his "dream pictures" of Old Mexico.

January, Ellener Cook, songs and folk dances in costume.

February, The Jitney Players.

March, Dan McCowan, a naturalist and ranger from Banff Springs, Canada.

May, Wilmetta Sproull Taggart in monologue.

The feature originally scheduled for November has been cancelled because of the sudden death of the principal entertainer, Mrs. Estelle Gray Lhevinne, violinist, who was to have appeared with her pianist son, Laddie Boy.

Baseball Fans Gather In Successful Banquet

The Northfield Athletic Association wound up the 1933 baseball season last Tuesday night with a banquet at the Mountain View Inn.

Thirty two fans and players sat down to a bountiful roast chicken dinner prepared by Host and Mrs. Pratt.

After the delicious meal, Mr. L. H. Lazelle, the president of the Association, acting as toastmaster, introduced the speakers of the evening.

Dr. Allen H. Wright spoke briefly on his experience in the past as a ball player and then his ideas on having a local team which played throughout the summer here. Next Dr. A. N. Thompson spoke a few words of praise for the officers and explained how the sport in good baseball games helps to promote the lives of the boys toward good citizenry.

Mr. A. B. Forslund Physical Director at Mt. Hermon was the next speaker of the evening and he outlined the history of the game of baseball. He told of many things that took place in the early stages of the game that were news to a majority of those attending.

Dean Williams, the Manager of the 1933 team, was called upon for a few words. He thanked the players for their splendid co-operation during the past year, and also the fans for their wholehearted support which enabled the team to finish the year financially without going into debt. This seemed to be a wonderful showing for the way the fans have backed the team in the year of depression as the past year has been, also considering the fact that a great many of the teams in the surrounding towns did go into the red quite a little.

Several of the guests and players then spoke briefly on their reactions and ideas of the team.

After the speaking a social evening of cards was spent in the spacious parlors of the hotel.

At this time the management of the team wished to thank all the players and fans who have made possible the successful year enjoyed by the team the past season, the Northfield Hotel Company for their splendid co-operation for letting the team use their baseball field, and to Mr. Henry Johnson and all who helped to make the banquet to the players possible.

Local Sportsmen Attend

The Franklin County League of Sportsmen's clubs held a regular session at the Hotel Weldon on Tuesday evening following a dinner of its membership. Mr. Horatia Dumont, the President presided and an address was delivered by F. A. McLaughlin of Amherst the delegate to the State Council of Sportsmen's clubs. Those who attended from Northfield were: Galen F. Stearns and Frank W. Anderson.

Chosen For Jury Duty

The traverse jury list which will sit at the special session of the superior court on Oct. 9, has been completed. The session is called for the trial of Harry Clay Bull of Brooklyn, N. Y., indicted by the grand jury on a charge of first degree murder of Officer Albert M. Jordan of the Greenfield Police Department on Aug. 7.

On the list chosen for service are the following from Northfield and vicinity: Leon R. Alexander, Northfield; Luman A. Barber, Northfield; Frank E. Evans, East Northfield; Fred M. Hale, Barnardston; Frank D. Jones, Gill; Leslie F. Mansfield, Warwick; C. R. Mayberry, Gill; Leon A. Randall, South Vernon; Sidney P. Tyler, Northfield.

Two Hermon Students Have Novel Experience

Two recent Mount Hermon students are now entering thrilling experiences of adventure. Emanuel Naya, who left Mount Hermon last June after a three-year stay, has returned to Cuba, and is enrolled in the forces of President Grau San Martin. With most of the army unpaid and revolt smoldering in various sections of Cuba, the new government is largely dependent upon citizen sympathizers, many of whom are students.

To the Antarctic with Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd goes Gordon H. Fountain of Plainfield, N. J., who was graduated from Mount Hermon last June. He was one who was picked from thousands to be one of the crew of the Bear of Oakland, which has just sailed from Boston for the Antarctic, where the company will spend the next two years. Although young Fountain has always been interested in ships, his sole experience has been as skipper of his uncle's yacht in Massachusetts Bay. For the past four summers he has acquired first-hand rudiments of seamanship and from sea-faring acquaintances he has learned elementary navigation.

Since his graduation he has been working and living aboard the Bear every day, helping to prepare the ship for its two-year voyage. Until last Saturday he did not learn that he was to be one of the fortunate few to be selected, as officials had kept the crew list a secret.

The Bear is due in Norfolk, Virginia, in a few days where it will stop for coal and then proceed to New Zealand via the Panama Canal and the South Pacific. It is necessary that the ship arrive at Little America on the ice barrier by January 1st, while it is still possible to penetrate the ice pack.

A Progressive Supper To Welcome Teachers

All parents and friends interested in the work of the public schools of Northfield are cordially invited to a reception to the teachers on Monday evening, October 2nd. This way of showing an appreciation of the efforts of our teachers will be in the form of a progressive supper. The first course will take place at 6 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Ross Spencer of East Northfield, who will serve meat pies. From there the guests will proceed to the home of Mrs. Frank Montague, where salads, rolls and coffee will be served. The last stop will be for apple pie and ice cream at Mrs. E. M. Morgan's.

After the final course, the organizing of a new Teachers' and Parents' Union will take place, to continue the work of the former P. T. A. which withdrew from the national organization in order to devote all money from dues to local activities.

Because of the nature of the evening's entertainment, it will be necessary to sell tickets in advance, in order to know how many are to be served. The tickets will be 25c, and may be procured from the following sectional chairmen: West Northfield, Mrs. Fred Bolton; East Northfield, Mrs. Clifford Bolton; Northfield, Mrs. Charles Kehl; and Northfield Farms, Mrs. Charles Gilbert.

Will Give Reception To State President

The Fortnightly Woman's Club will hold their next gathering on Friday afternoon October 13th at Alexander Hall when a reception will be tendered to Mrs. Frank P. Bennett, President of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs. Tea will be served with Rev. Mary Andrews Conner as hostess. The usual business session will precede the social function. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance of the membership.

Speakers At Hermon

Rev. Elliott Speer, headmaster of Mount Hermon School, was the speaker at both services last Sunday in Memorial Chapel which was attended by the entire student body of 536 and the faculty. The minister, Rev. Lester P. White, announced the list of speakers for the Sundays of October. On Sunday, Rev. Mr. White will speak. October 8, Wilfred W. Fry of Philadelphia, President of the Northfield Schools; October 15, Rev. Thomas Roy, minister of the First Baptist Church of Worcester; October 22, Coleman Jennings, a retired banker of Washington, D. C.; October 29, Rev. William H. Powers, dean of Hendricks Chapel at Syracuse University, New York.

Pigeons Are Released

The tired and exhausted pigeons which were picked up and cared for as previously announced in the Herald have been well cared for and released so that they might continue their journey homeward. The Herald's inquiry as to the ownership of the birds elicited the fact that birds with a band on each leg usually means that they were released in a race or release training and they ought only from injury or exhaustion and those finding them should release them on a morning of a fair day (never rainy). These birds were part of a large flock. Mr. Burgess thanks those who cared for the birds and the Herald for its publicity.

State Bridle Path Will Pass Through Here

A bridle path, 350 miles long, from the Berkshires to Cape Cod, has been planned by the Massachusetts Forest and Park association.

Information relative to the trail will be published by the association, describing the trail, charting its scenic spots, and telling where horses and riders may be accommodated. It is planned to have these accommodations every 20 miles, or the distance of a day's comfortable ride.

The trail will start at Williams-town, where it will connect with the great Vermont system of bridle trails. Its course will be along the northern border of Massachusetts and down to the tip of the Cape. The Western Massachusetts part of the trail will go from Williamstown over Mt. Greylock and through the Mohawk Trail state forest, following the old trail that the Indians used, then on to the Christian Hill state forest in Colrain and across the Connecticut Valley, probably in the vicinity of Northfield and continuing to the Mt. Grace state forest in Warwick, to Doane's Falls in Royalston, to the Otter River state forest in Winchendon and then to Fitchburg and to Willard Brooks state forest, where the trail will branch to Cape Ann and Cape Cod.

Pioneering work in plotting this long trail has been done by Harris R. Reynolds in half of the committee on bridle trails of the forest and park association. He has gone over the whole trail, seeking out what at first glance appeared to be the best location in each district, and has been instrumental in the organization of district committees which will assume direction over the detailed work of blazing the trail. It is to be a community project to the extent that each division of the trail will have a locally organized committee to deal with all the local problems, such as the best cutters from one road to another, the most attractive spots to be reached, rights of way and work of clearing where the line leads through some abandoned road now hidden in thick underbrush. Five or six of these district committees have been organized, and are functioning, and half a dozen more will be formed as rapidly as possible to complete the system.

Chapel Speakers Northfield Seminary

Services were held in Sage Chapel last Sunday under the direction of Northfield Seminary's new Chaplain, Mr. Harold B. Ingalls. The speaker at both services was Rev. Rex D. Clements minister of Church of the Covenant, Boston. Speakers who will occupy Sage Chapel pulpit for the Sunday services during October were announced by Mr. Ingalls. The morning service on Oct. 1 will be addressed by Miss Mira B. Wilson, Principal of Northfield Seminary, the evening service by Mr. Ingalls; Oct. 8, Professor A. Bruce Curry, D. D. Union Theological Seminary, New York City, and Wilfred W. Fry, President of The Northfield Schools; Oct. 15, Elliott Speer, Headmaster of Mount Hermon School and Kenneth Holland, Executive Secretary of International Student Service, New York City; Oct. 22, Dr. Albert G. Butzer, Buffalo, N. Y.; Oct. 29, Dean William H. Powers, Syracuse University.

Nurses Graduate

Several persons from Northfield were in attendance last Tuesday evening at the graduation of nurses from the Franklin County Hospital School for nursing at St. James Parish Hall in Greenfield.

Dr. Alfred E. Johnson, President of the hospital medical staff, presented diplomas to 15 graduates while F. Raymond Andrews, President of the Trustees presided. John C. Lee administered the oath to the graduates. The Chelmsford Quartette rendered several vocal selections and the Rev. J. W. Gilkey of Springfield, Mass. delivered a most eloquent address. Dancing followed the exercises with music by Phil O'Hara's Orchestra.

School For Firemen

The Springfield Fire Department gave a school of instruction for firemen last Saturday under the direction of Norcross Stratton of the State Board of Education.

Firemen from several of the communities in Franklin, Hampshire and Hampden counties attended but no report comes of the attendance of any member of the fire company from Northfield. The school was held at the Dwight St. engine house, where a demonstration of firefighting was put on by a squad from that station under the command of Capt. Richard Bolster. The visiting firemen were shown types of knots, use of ladders, forcible entry, methods of connecting hose to hydrant and pumper and given other practical lessons in firefighting. They were instructed in ventilation, simplified hydraulics, different types of streams and fire inspection for the prevention of fire.

The regular meeting of the Women's Relief Corps will be held Friday afternoon, Oct. 6th, at 2.30 P. M. in Alexander Hall. There will be several county officers present and after the usual business there will be a social hour.

Prominent Summer Resident Passes Away At Home In Brooklyn

Northfield received with deep regret early last Tuesday the news of the death, after brief illness, of Mr. William J. McRoberts of Brooklyn, N. Y. Mr. McRoberts had spent much of the summer here at his beautiful estate in Mountain Park with his family but about four weeks ago not feeling well returned to Brooklyn and entered St. John's Hospital in that city. The house here was immediately closed and Mrs. McRoberts and members of the family returned to their home in Brooklyn. After improving somewhat Mr. McRoberts suffered a relapse and his death came suddenly on Monday September 25th. Mr. McRoberts was born in County Down, Ireland, and came to the United States in 1880, settling at New Brighton, S. I. but has made his home in Brooklyn for the past forty years. Mr. McRoberts who was head of the shipping firm of William J. McRoberts & Co., had been active in business up to the time he was taken ill.

Beside his widow, Catherine Louise he leaves one daughter, Mrs. Robert A. Baldwin Jr. of Springfield, Mass., and three sons, Carl C., Frank C., and James C., all of Brooklyn. Also three sisters, Mrs. Harry Standerwick, Mrs. Walter Robertson and Miss Francisena McRoberts and two brothers, Robert and Samuel McRoberts. The funeral services were held at the South Reformed Church 55th St., and 4th avenue, Brooklyn, Wednesday evening at eight o'clock with Masonic ritual.

The interment was private in the family plot at Greenwood Cemetery Brooklyn on Thursday. He was a member of Sunset lodge No. 936, F. and A. M., Damascus Commandery, No. 68, K. T., and B. P. O. E. No. 22 all of Brooklyn. He had served as a member of the New York assembly and was prominent in the political circles of his community.

Heard Fine Talk

When the Brotherhood of the Congregational Church held its first meeting of the season last week it was privileged to listen to a splendid address by Gaylord W. Douglass, a lecturer, who spoke on the subject, "The Prevention of War." He told of his experiences in various countries of Europe in which he recently has travelled with a view to preparing himself for war in the cause of peace. Mr. Douglass is a former Mount Hermon student and while in Northfield addressed the schools, including the high school on the same subject. He pointed out that the world is growing smaller as modern means of communication become better developed and that world peace is desirable. The address was preceded by a supper which was much enjoyed by the members of the Brotherhood.

Kindergarten Success

Miss Barbara's Kindergarten which was opened by Mrs. Williams at her home on September 11th is meeting with success and the following children are enrolled for the school year: Kay Moody, David Kidder, Donald and Ruth Norton. The Kindergarten meets five days a week from 9 to 11.30 a.m., and there is room for a limited number of additional pupils.

Damon—Lawrence

At the home of Rev. Mary Andrews Conner on Winchester Road last Saturday evening September 25th Miss Ethel T. Lawrence, sister of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Lawrence, our local merchant and Mr. Ralph C. Damon of Ashby, Mass., were united in marriage, by Rev. Mary Andrews Conner. The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence and are now on an extended wedding trip after which they will reside in Ashby.

Schools Purchase Land

Papers have been filed in the registry of deeds by Mary M. Nye of Northfield transferring property located on Louisiana road to the Northfield Schools, Inc. The property is located about the reservoir and watershed of the East Northfield Water Co., on Hogback and was quite a necessary purchase in the interest of an increasing demand for water and an enlarged reservoir. The purchase of this property had been considered for many years.

Hermon's Enrollment Large Student Body

A record enrollment of 535 for the 53rd year of Mount Hermon School featured the beginning of classes last week under the leadership of Headmaster Elliott Speer. Four tents have been erected near the gymnasium to care for the overflow of students until preparations for more permanent quarters can be completed. It was explained that the reduction in the staff of teachers and in finances of many high schools was a contributing cause for the unusual increase in enrollment.

An entirely new system of classes will be in vogue this year. Instead of having classes on five days a week, they will meet daily except Sunday. The periods will be 55 minutes long instead of 45, and meet four times a week instead of five. Holidays will be on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons. A beginning will be made this year on a schedule of interscholastic athletics, although the regular intramural system of interclass athletics will remain the basis of sports.

One of the most important changes physically is the division of Crossley Hall into three parts by means of partitions. North Crossley will have as head, Mr. Harlan Baxter; Middle Crossley, Dr. Bret Miller; and South Crossley, Mr. B. Foster. Mr. Spurgeon Gage assistant to the Dean last year, and also an instructor in Science, will not be able to teach this year on account of a serious illness, from which he is at present convalescing.

Seminary Items

The Northfield Seminary Honor Roll for the last semester is as follows: Mary Alden, Margaret Allen, Eleanor Applebee, Ruth Batchelor, Priscilla Copley, Ellen Dix, Mary Evans, Elinor Guy, Henrietta Henderson, Eileen Hicks, Constance McNaughton, Elizabeth Maurice, Rebecca McCray Janet Morrill, Ellen Newton, Phyllis Paton, Emily Pearson, Annabelle Reed, Beatrice Reed, Ruth Reynolds, Beatrice Swift, and Cynthia Widdoes.

The Seminary has instituted an innovation in the form of a milk stand for mid-morning lunches. Each morning, directly after Chapel, the girls are allowed fifteen minutes in which to cross campus to the "tea tent" near the Auditorium. Here every girl is served crackers and a glass of milk without charge.

At 8.30 Saturday afternoon, September 23rd, all new girls at the Seminary escorted by the "Senior Sisters" were introduced to members of the faculty and to each other at Miss Wilson's home. In the receiving line were Miss Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Speer Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Duley, Mr. Charles Tabor, and Miss Gene White, Chairman of the Campus Government Association. The girls were given a chance to meet Mr. Harold B. Ingalls, the Chaplain, Mrs. Ingalls, and Mr. M. L. Gallagher, the new Choral Director. Punch was served on the lawn.

Seating Day Exercises were held in Sage Chapel on Tuesday, September 26th. 83 students was classified as Seniors, and 90 as Juniors. Miss Victoria Freeman, of East Northfield, the Senior Class Teacher and the Class President, Miriam Booth, of Bennington, Vt., led the procession of Seniors into the Chapel. The class hymn was sung, "Father in Heaven Who Lovest All", followed by a brief reading and talk by Miss Wilson, Principal, in reference to the class motto, "Truth is the highest thing a man may keep." The Honor List was then read and the President of the Campus Government, Miss Gene White, of Matawan, New Jersey, explained the purpose of student officers and the Campus Government Association to members of the student body. After the close of these exercises the Juniors and Seniors sang on Chapel Hill as is the old school tradition.

Herald News Items

Eaglebrook School for boys at Deerfield opened last week its 13th year with an enrollment of sixty boys.

Politicians who have desired to capitalize the popularity of President Roosevelt are pestered by the fact that President Roosevelt was staying out of participation in any local politics.

The sale of the assets of the Estey Organ Company except its timber lots, house lots and accounts receivable has been made by Harold E. Whitney trustee in bankruptcy. A. O. Mr. Brungardt has been in Brattleboro for several months and the purchase was believed to be preparatory to the organization of a new company, which will resume the making of organs.

Deerfield Academy at Deerfield opened last week with a record attendance. Eighty boys from various parts of Franklin County are in attendance.

Mrs. J. M. Sheldon, historian and scientist of Deerfield, has been elected a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science in recognition of her original research work in science.

Famous English Woman To Speak In Northfield

Miss Christable Pankhurst, famous leader of the great struggle of women in England for suffrage rights, the instigator of the militant campaign, and staunch supporter of her even more famous mother, Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, for whom a large monument was recently unveiled in London by Lord Baldwin, will speak Thursday evening at 7.30 in the Trinitarian Congregational Church of Northfield.

The actual Miss Christable Pankhurst would never be taken for the Miss Christable Pankhurst envisioned by those who have drawn their own mental picture of a militant suffragette and let it go at that. She is blond, pleasant and composed. One gathers that if she hurled a brick now and then in the interests of suffrage, she did so with a smile and a fervent prayer that it would not carom off the head of a dignitary. She has a sense of humor, yet she is taking life seriously. She has found an interpretation of the Bible which satisfies her questions and she believes that if her peace of mind can be shared by others the world will have to worry less about such things as war, privation, armament, distrust and suffering. For some time she has been travelling throughout the American continent and all over Europe and England showing the clear alignment of Biblical prophecy and present day events. She comes to New England at this time upon the invitation of the New England Fellowship. Her general theme in Northfield will be "The World Crisis and Its Remedy." Her visit here affords a real privilege to the people of Northfield to listen to her message.

New Postage Issue

The Postoffice Department will soon issue a new postage stamp commemorating the second expedition of Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd, retired, to the Antarctic. Postmaster General Farley showed the design to the President. The stamp has on it a globe of the world, with lines showing the various flights of Byrd across the ocean and to the North and South Poles. It is marked "Byrd Antarctic Expedition II."

Postmaster Slate of Northfield expects to have these stamps on sale soon.

A. D. A. R. Event

The Daughters of the American Revolution, Dorothy Quincy Hancock Chapter of Greenfield have arranged for a regional meeting at the Weldon Hotel on January 11th 1934. All chapters in Western Massachusetts will be invited and a reception for visiting officers will be held. National officers are expected to address the gathering. Music will be furnished by Mrs. Louis E. Smith, Miss Grove W. Deming and Carlton W. L'Hommedieu of Mount Hermon.

Members of the organization in Northfield will want to make note of this date.

"Consumers" Canvass Is Now Completed Cards Being Checked

The canvass by the Committee of Volunteers for signatures on the Consumers Cards of the N. R. A. is about completed and the cards are being checked and properly indexed. About six hundred cards have been returned. Persons still desirous of securing their "Blue Eagle" for home or automobile who have not signed the card may do so at the various Post Offices, at the Northfield National Bank, the Bookstore or the Northfield Pharmacy. Within a few days the Northfield Compliance Board will be publicly announced and efforts will be made to consult with all signers of the Blue Eagle to fulfill their "codes." The Board will consist of seven members as follows: Two employers—one representing industry, and another either retail or wholesale trade; two employees—one industrial, the other either in retail or wholesale trade; a consumer's representative, preferably a woman; a lawyer to be recommended by his State bar association; and a seventh member.

Duties of the boards as outlined by NRA: 1. Hear complaints of non-compliance with Blue Eagle regulations 2. Hear petitions for exceptions to various codes. 3. Hear petitions for permission to operate under union hour schedules as provided in labor contracts longer than NRA maximum hour demands.

Chairman Hoehn attended the County meeting at the Weldon Hotel last Tuesday with State NRA officials present and the outlook for the immediate future looks very optimistic. NRA must succeed. It will.

Red Cross Meeting

The regional conference of Western Massachusetts chapters of the American Red Cross will be held in Westfield at the auditorium of the Westfield Woman's club, October 9, with the local chapter as host. Charles F. Ely, chapter chairman, will preside at the business meetings and Edwin W. Smith former chairman at the luncheon. Gov. Joseph B. Ely will deliver the address of welcome. A full day's program has been arranged with many prominent speakers in attendance. The sessions are at ten o'clock in the morning with luncheon at 12.30 noon and afternoon session at 2 o'clock.

schools.

Vernon Road Work And Construction Begins

The Vernon Road, from South
ernon to Brattleboro is under construction and while passable, tourists and other motorists will do well to use the road on the east side of the river through Hinsdale in going to or coming from Brattleboro. The work has begun at the Massachusetts State line near the Advent Home and will continue northward until the entire distance has been improved and connects with the finished road at the Brattleboro town line. The work on the highway is divided into two undertakings, one to be done with federal funds apportioned to the state under the national recovery act and one with funds appropriated by the town of Vernon. The two sections embrace the entire main highway from the Massachusetts line to the Brattleboro line, a distance of nine miles.
The work just begun is on the south section, using Vernon town funds.

The surface is to be of the mixed-in-place type but of tar-treated stone instead of gravel, the stone being taken from the state's plant on West river. The roadway will be 18 feet wide, with additional width on the curves. It is not intended to do any considerable amount of grading work, but to provide proper drainage foundation.

All this work is to be done under the regulations of the highway department and the federal government, and as far as is feasible hand labor will be used. From 20 to 30 men will be employed in each shift, each being employed not over 30 hours a week. It will not be possible to complete the project before next summer, but work will be continued this fall as long as weather conditions permit.

Work on the north end, beginning at the Brattleboro - Vernon town line, will be started as soon as plans can be completed and approved by the federal government, as that section is to be done with federal funds.

This splendid improvement will be hailed with delight by Northfield citizens.

A Lesson in Loveliness

Loveliness... that intangible something that is given to every woman in greater or lesser degree... it is easily lost, yet every woman strives to keep it as long as she may.

Time for rest and recreation helps to preserve loveliness—hours of freedom from kitchen cares. That's one of the reasons so many modern women are turning to electric cookery.

An automatic electric range will take full charge of your cooking — its precision controls watch both time and temperature. It will relieve you from the necessity of scrubbing the bottoms of your cooking utensils — with electric cookery, the bottoms of utensils remain bright and new-looking without attention.

You'll find the many advantages of electric cookery delightful. Investigate it now!

Congregationalists To Hold Gathering At Pittsfield

The outstanding fall event in New England Congregationalism is the fourth New England Regional Meeting which comes on October 14 to 16 at the First and South Congregational Churches, Pittsfield, Mass., with pastors, adult lay leaders, and young people representing the Congregational and Christian churches from Maine to Connecticut, conferring on the general topic, "A Revaluation of our Christian Message and Service for Today."

Among the leading speakers will be: Dr. William Ernest Hocking, Alford Professor of Philosophy, Harvard University, and Chairman of the Laymen's Foreign Missions Inquiry; Miss Ruth I. Seabury, Educational Secretary of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, just back from a series of young people's conferences in Great Britain and Geneva; Rev. John C. Schroeder of Portland, Maine; Dr. Charles Emerson Burton of New York, General Secretary of the General Council of Congregational and Christian Churches of America; Dr. Mary E. Woolley, President of Mt. Holyoke College; Dr. Charles C. Merrill of New York, Executive Secretary of the Commission on Missions; and Rev. Harold M. Kingsley of Chicago.

The conference is under the auspices of the New England Regional Committee of the Commission on Missions of the Congregational and Christian Churches, Rev. Judson L. Cross of Boston, Executive Secretary, with Rev. Charles E. McKinley, D. D., Superintendent of the Rhode Island Congregational Conference, presiding at the opening session.

Dr. D. Brewer Eddy of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, assisted by one or more missionaries from the field, will lead a conference Sunday afternoon on "The American Board and International Cooperation." Rev. George L. Cady of New York will conduct a seminar on "The Art of Living Together in a Smaller World" and Rev. Hubert C. Herring, Secretary of the Social Service Department of the Congregational Education Society on "The Church and Economic Recovery."

A colorful session will be the presentation on Saturday evening October 15, at the Wendell Hotel under the direction of Dr. Enoch F. Bell, Editorial Secretary of the American Board, of a dramatization entitled "The Pilgrim Fathers Charter an Inquiry" which will follow a Fellowship Banquet. Lively seminars will feature the conference under such leaders as Dr. William E. Hocking on "Revaluation in the Foreign Field"; Rev. William F. Frazier, Superintendent of the Vermont Congregational Conference and Rev. Max Webster of Montana on "Revaluation as Applied to our Missionary Work in America"; Donald A. Adams of New Haven, Executive Secretary of the Laymen's Advisory Committee of the Commission on Missions on "A Revaluation of our Material Resources."

Dr. Harry T. Stock, Young People's Secretary of the Congregational Education Society, will conduct a Young People's Rally on Saturday afternoon and evening, with addresses by Miss Ruth Isabel Seabury on "Christ in the Modern World" and Miss Margaret Slattery on "What Will You Do With Yourself?" Discussion groups in the afternoon will be led by Rev. Porter Bower of Hartford, Conn., on "Making America Christian"; Rev. Ray Gibbons of Westbrook, Maine, on "Rebuilding our Economic Order" and Rev. David N. Beach of Springfield, Mass., on "Our International Friendships." The conference sermon Sunday morning, October 15, in the First Congregational Church, will be preached by Rev. John C. Schroeder of Portland, Maine, on the topic "The Task of Religion" followed by the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. The speakers for the afternoon and evening will be Rev. Charles E. Burton on "Missions in the Organic Structure of the Church" and Dr. Mary E. Woolley on "International Peace and Disarmament."

The closing session Monday morning, Oct. 16, will include a discussion period on "The Place and Function of the Local Associations in Modern Congregationalism" under Rev. James F. English of Manchester, N. H., and a seminar on "Mental Aspects of Parish Work" by Rev. Milton S. Czatt, Ph. D., of Brattleboro, Vt., closing with two addresses, one by Rev. Charles C. Merrill on "The Skillfulness of Our Hands" and "Toward a More Friendly Racial World" by Rev. Harold M. Kingsley, Superintendent of the Negro Churches of North America under the Church Extension Society.

Know Your Speed

In a revision of the rules and regulations for automobile driving on the highways of the state, the Department of Public Works has let it be known that motorists must "move along" at a speed of at least 35 miles an hour. This rule will give state troopers authority, if they find a slow driver holding up a line of cars on highways to make the dilatory one pull up at the side of the road and remain there until the entire line of cars has passed.

This does not mean, however, that the highways are a race track and that limitations of speed are not to be observed. Many motorists driving through Northfield, do so at too fast a pace and without consideration of the rights of others. The Herald has quite a list of Northfield drivers who travel too fast upon our streets and some are women.

Books At The Library Are Now Card Listed

Patrons of Dickinson Library will be interested to learn that the card catalogue has been, during the past summer, completely revised and brought up to date.

This important part of our book system has been practically useless for years and it has been difficult for both patrons and librarians to know what volumes were actually in the library and what had been worn out and discarded. Miss Helen Vorce was engaged by the Trustees to do this work, and it is now accomplished in a most thorough and satisfactory manner. The following list, issued by the librarian, gives in round numbers, the contents of the library at date.

Books of reference and special classics 450
Fiction 1150
Biography 550
Travel and History 750
Literature 350
Science and Education 550
Juvenile 900
The library owns, in addition some 500 old and valuable volumes of genealogy, Indian history and first editions which are not circulated. These books are classified by themselves. This list with the six or seven hundred books in current circulation, totals about 6000 volumes. There are, at this date, nearly six hundred readers, registered as patrons of the library.

Calls For Safe Tires

State Registrar of Motor Vehicles Morgan Ryan has let it be known that motorists must give some attention to the tires on their cars. He said:—

"Sixty miles an hour, the speed at which many motorists travel on the open highways, is actually flying. The racing speeds of yesterday are the highway speeds of today. Racing drivers have always used extreme care to be sure they had tires that would endure the terrific strain of high-speed driving, but motorists on the average are almost criminally negligent of this important factor in safety. Thin, worn, or cheaply constructed tires are a hazard prohibited by law in some countries. A blowout or a skid at high-speed means the driver or a collision. "Tires without proper non-skid tread allow the car to skid. Stopping distance is sacrificed just to squeeze the last few miles out of a tire."

"In the long run the motorist does not save any money in driving his tires to the last thin mile. It only takes one puncture to offset the saving and an accident with injury or expense may come with blowouts or skidding. "Right now, before winter weather sets in and driving conditions get bad, is the time to put your car in safe driving condition."

The Springfield Show

Indications of improved business conditions and greater public confidence are drawn from the 17th annual Eastern States Exposition which closed last Saturday night after one of the most successful years in its history. There was a large attendance of Northfield people and from our surrounding towns.

Despite rain on Sunday and Wednesday which affected the attendance figures materially, the total for the week according to daily gate figures was 272,065, the largest since the record years of 1929 and 1930, and a marked increase over the totals for 1931 and 1932. It is worthwhile to note that a record breaking grandstand crowd of more than 14,000 saw the automobile races and stampe and rodeo last Saturday afternoon.

One of the outstanding events of the week was the sale of the baby beef steer of Miss Therese Gravel, 11 of Pine Plains, N. Y., a 4-H baby beef club member, at public auction on Tuesday at a new world's record price for beef on the hoof of $11.15 per pound. Industrial exhibitors and commercial exhibitors in the several state buildings reported heavier over the counter sales than for three years and also announced excellent prospect lists built up from queries received during the seven day period.

The Exposition put up a good weeks show but its lack of proper publicity failed to induce many becoming enthusiastic over attending.

W. C. T. U. Elects

The annual meeting of the Franklin County Women's Christian Temperance Union was held at the Methodist Church in Greenfield Tuesday afternoon and resulted in the election of the following officers: President, Mrs. Minnie E. Graves, president of the local union, succeeding Mrs. Minnie L. Morgan of Northfield; vice-president, Mrs. Ida M. Grant of Bernardston; secretary, Mrs. Ella Bitters of Greenfield, and treasurer, Mrs. Leon Nelson of Bernardston. The last three officers were re-elected.

The principal speaker was Mrs. Alice G. Ropes of Wollaston, president of the state organization. The Greenfield union host to the gathering, presented a playlet, entitled, "The Preventorium," directed by Mrs. Julia Kohler. Special music included a solo by Mrs. Foote and two duets by Mrs. Snow, Mrs. Foote and Mrs. P. J. Richards.

These figures are based on the latest retail registration figures from R. L. Polk & Company (all states for six full months). Since January first, Chevrolet has sold in excess of 425,000 passenger cars and trucks.

Can there be any stronger recommendation for a car than this

CHEVROLET America can't be fooled when it comes to spotting the best "buy" in any field. America knows too much about motor cars for that. So when one certain car wins almost as many buyers as the next two put together, you know the answer: IT MUST BE BETTER. And that's what the new Chevrolet Six most certainly is.

Chevrolet is better looking—Chevrolet has better bodies—built not just of steel alone, but of steel reinforced by a sturdy hardwood frame. Chevrolet has a better engine—six cylinders for economy, cushion balancing for killing vibration! And Chevrolet gives better value—a long line-up of modern features which no other low-priced car can match.

Now is the time to start thinking about a new car for winter! And when you do so, think of the way Chevrolet is leading in sales. Could you ask for any stronger recommendation for a low-priced car than that?

EDITORIAL

Forbearing its mission of expressing gratitude and peace, the state's war memorial beacon tower atop Mt. Greylock has reached out its long beams of light as tentacles of destruction and suffering.

Hundreds of birds, evidently in migration, have been attracted to the beacon and crashed against it in flight, being either maimed or killed.

Such is the story that comes from Greylock. The sentiment that prevailed in the erection of the light atop the monument is now shown of its benefits. What good even this light might be to us pilgrims on "terra firma" is yet to be seen. The monument itself is sufficient as a memorial.

It is gratifying to learn of the large registration of students at both Mount Hermon school and Northfield Seminary. Northfield is proud of these institutions which are located within its borders. That its course of education is readily appreciated by our young people testifies to the purpose and abilities of its faculties and is an assurance that those who administer the affairs of the Northfield Schools are planning wisely and building up institutions with promise of greater growth and influence.

The recent speech of National Recovery Administration Johnson concerning the "buy now" campaign he plans to start should be of especial interest to the wise and thrifty property-owner.

The forthcoming campaign is not to be classed with sporadic campaigns of a similar nature attempted during the past few years. This one will have the highest backing—it will come at a time when recovery is really under way, and the public will go the limit in cooperating with the heads of the government. There is every reason to believe it will succeed. And the inevitable result will be still sharper acceleration of the price level.

Congregational Church

The Bible School will meet on Sunday morning at ten o'clock, with a good staff of teachers and officers, and an efficient orchestra. Our aim is to make Christian citizens and faithful church workers.

The regular preaching service at eleven o'clock, with a splendid musical contribution by the chorus choir under the leadership of Professor Lawrence.

The Junior young people will meet in the vestry at three o'clock for study in the Scriptures.

The Senior Endeavor will meet at seven o'clock Sunday evening under the leadership of Francis Reed.

Sunday evenings are given to a Gospel song service led by Mr. Philip Porter followed by a message from the pastor.

The opening Sunday evening service for the Winter Season at Northfield Farms will be held at six thirty o'clock.

The public are invited to hear Miss Fankhoush in the church Thursday evening.

The Northfield Seminary entertainment course will open next Saturday with Amelia Earhart lecturing on her work in aviation.

Turners Falls Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star has extended an invitation to the members of Northfield Chapter to attend their official inspection on Monday evening, October 2nd.

The highway department has done some excellent work on the roads in West Northfield much appreciated by those who travel them.

High School Notes

Friday afternoon the first meeting of the Junior Class was held with thirteen members present.

The meeting was opened by the class advisor, Miss Austin. The following were elected as officers for the coming year: President, Stanley Newton; Vice-President, Evelyn Johnson; Secretary and Treasurer, Martha Stebbins. It was voted that seventy-five cents should be the amount of class dues for the year. The subject of back dues was discussed and it was decided that they ought to be paid as soon as possible.

Wednesday noon Mr. Parmer introduced to the school Dr. E. H. Dewey, an instructor of English at Harvard. Dr. Dewey won his audience by telling an interesting story. He concluded his talk by saying that everybody should read books as they will fill places which even friends cannot. Good books which should be the friends of all are the classics, such as the Odyssey and The Iliad, good plays such as Hamlet, and the Bible.

The boys interested in baseball have divided into teams and are playing under the direction of Mr. Parmer in anticipation of next spring.

Poet's Corner

MT. EVERETT

Carved of nature, gifted rare
With crest of oval stone,
Sentry of the Berkshire Hills,
Better known as "The Dome."

Staunch as the stalwart redskins
That roamed your graceful folds,
Reserved as their gallant chief
Whose tales you've left untold.

Chaste as the Worthy Builder
That shaped your famed design,
'Neath earth's azure firmament
His masterpiece—a shrine.

A shrine of vortex splendor
Where sylvan fairies kneel,
To the treker of your trails
Your silent thought reveal.

Astral jewels of wisdom
Reflect your lakes and rills,
Tears of wonderment
Inlaid of Berkshire Hills.

Grace S. Link.

Great Barrington,
(Berkshire Courier)

WHEN I AM DEAD

When I am dead, forget me, dear,
For I shall never know,
Though o'er my cold and lifeless hands
Your burning tears should flow;
I'll cancel with my living voice
The debt you'll owe the dead—
Give me the love you'd show me then,
But give it now instead.

And bring no wreaths to deck my grave,
For I shall never care,
Though all the flowers I loved the most
Should glow and wither there.
I'll sell my chance of all the flowers
You'll lavish when I'm dead.
For one small bunch of violets now—
Give that to me instead.

What saints we are when we are gone,
But what's the use to me
Of praises written on my tomb
For other eyes to see?
One little simple word of praise
By lips we worship said,
Is worth a hundred epitaphs—
Dear—say it now instead.

And faults that now are hard to bear
Oblivion then shall win;
Our sins are soon forgiven us
When we no more can sin.
But any bitter thought of me—
Keep it for when I'm dead—
I shall not know, I shall not care,
Forgive me now instead.

By Lady Celia Congreve.

South Church

Rev. Mary Andrews Conner
Minister

Every Person At Church:—
Yes, Sunday will be Rally Day for every person from the youngest to the oldest who can possibly attend. 9.45 The Church School will have a surprise for all and a real Rally Day Service. All persons, no matter what their age, who have had a birthday in July, August, or September are asked to bring their gift of money for will be the line of pennies. 10.45 Church Worship centering around the thought appropriate to Rally Day. Mrs. Conner will speak on the subject "Why Keep This Church going in Northfield?"

7 p. m. something new will be begun for the young people between the ages of 14 and 20 years. All young people, who are not active in another church, are invited to come to the church at 7 o'clock to help launch the "something new."

This Saturday, September 30th leaving Northfield at 8.30 a. m., the Junior Alliance will go with their leader, Mrs. Doris C. Bolton, to the Junior Alliance Conference held at Leominster, Mass.

Next Thursday, October 4 at Greenfield, the Alliance of Northfield will be the assisting hostess of the Greenfield Alliance, in entertaining sixteen neighboring groups of church women. Lunch will be served at the Weldon Hotel at 12.30 after which, in the church parlors, the program will be given. Mrs. Louis C. Cornish of Roston will speak on "Visiting Notes," Unitarian Churches in Europe."

The first church family supper of the season held in the parlors last Monday evening, was a success in numbers and fine spirit. As workers in one family, they talked over the progress being made in the church school, the Junior and Senior Alliances and laid plans for more effective work during the coming new year of togetherness. It was an informal but good time for all.

Anniversary Sale

Sears Roebuck store at Greenfield is determined to create greater business activity and they are observing their 47th Anniversary at this time also. When a Herald representative called at the store to meet Mr. Hasse, the General Manager, it was learned that the store in meeting the conditions of the NRA code and has also piled up its great stock of merchandise in anticipation of the increasing buying power of the public. Mr. Hasse says that they are now equipped and ready for the increased demand for the various articles carried in their stores.

So much interest has been aroused in the study of the new industrialism that New York City and Fordham Universities have arranged for NRA courses of study.

Springfield, Mass., announces that it will arrange an NRA parade and expects a showing and co-operation of nearby cities and towns.

HERE'S THEIR RECORD AT BASEBALL

Following is a composite box score of the years figures and averages of the N. A. A. ball team.

Although the team didn't win quite as large a percentage of the games played as they did last year, the management feels that on the whole a class of teams of greater strength has been played.

It is interesting to note that although only two more games were won than were last year, over a hundred more runs were scored by the local team than by their opponents. All this shows that a goodly part of the games lost were by one and two run margins.

Following are the statistics for the entire year:

Locals

There is to be a special meeting of the stockholders of the Western Massachusetts Banking Association at the First National Bank and Trust Co. of Greenfield on Tuesday October 3rd at ten A. M. Several stockholders from Northfield will be in attendance.

The Directors of the Northfield National Bank at a meeting held last Monday evening voted unanimously to join the Hampshire Clearing House Association now being organized in accordance with banking procedure. Uniformity in all banking effort among national banks will soon appear.

Those who use fuel oil for kitchen range or furnace will be interested to learn that the oil barrels or containers which they use must be tested to 5-pound pressure and be of 16-gauge metal, carrying the name of the maker on a metal tag attached to the barrel. Those keeping oil fuel in their cellars can no longer buy oil barrels of any description, as they may not pass inspection.

Mrs. W. R. Moody, Mrs. C. H. Webster and Miss Marion Webster furnished the musical part of the program of the Fortnightly club at the meeting at the Kipling home in Putney last Saturday.

The New England Regional meeting of Congregational Churches will be held at Pittsfield October 14 to 16th inclusive. The Northfield Church will probably be represented by a dozen representatives.

The meeting of the Franklin Association of Congregational Churches will be held at Shelburne Falls, October third.

Leon A. Richards and Clarence H. Clark of Irving have transferred land in Northfield to T. S. Mann Lumber Co., Inc., of Orange.

Summer residents who are remaining over for a longer stay are expressing much indignation over the condition of Myrtle Street which is in a deplorable condition and should be attended to by the town highway department.

Mr. and Mrs. George Foote and family of Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. Lewis Smith of Norwich, Conn., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Roberts on Winchester Road.

Dickinson Library has just received a generous gift of sixty-two Juvenile Books from Mrs. Charles Taber. The collection includes the Oz books by Baum—the Twins series by Perkins—the Boy Scout series by Carter, the Dr. Doolittle series by Lofting and many popular standard boys' books.

The Grange gave a reception to the teachers of the Northfield Schools at Grange Hall on Tuesday evening.

Signs at Lewis drug store on Main Street still announce the bridge at Hinsdale being reconstructed and that a detour is necessary.

Miss Catherine Gray of Greenfield spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gray.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hartman and son, Mr. William Hartman closed their cottage in Mountain Park and returned to their home in Brooklyn, N. Y. the last of the week.

N. R. A. NOTES

The Y. M. C. A. National Council will adopt a code covering 1500 associations, satisfactory to the NRA. Officials of the Y. M. C. A. said that although social agencies are exempt from the provisions of the recovery act, the action was taken, "to encourage the purposes of the act."
